Assembly District 76 (Manhattan’s Upper East Side and Roosevelt Island): In the race to replace the disgraced Assemblyman Micah Kellner, the leading candidates are Rebecca Seawright, backed by most labor unions and women’s groups, and Gus Christensen, a former investment banker. Mr. Christensen, who often says that “economic justice is just good economics,” has the credibility to coax the financial community into accepting higher taxes and a better minimum wage. Mr. Christensen is the clear leader in this race.
